Perfect Weather Greet's Carnival

Miss Michigan Winter Sports, 1960, Ann Louise Peabody of Lake Fenton won Flint who entered the contest as the Miss Lake Fenton Kiwanis Ski Queen. She also has held the title of Apple Queen of Genesee County.

The 35th Annual Grayling Winter Sports Carnival will be long remembered for the ideal weather afforded both Saturday and Sunday for such an affair. The sun was out brightly but crisp temperatures made skiing and tobogganing much more exhilarating. Ideal weather for an ice and snow holiday. In the past the Carnival has been at times plagued with the extremes of from blizzards to almost spring-like weather.

This year as in the past, the Carnival got off on Saturday morning with the registration of the visiting Queens at Shoppenagons Inn under the direction of Mrs. Ella Wilcox. Only eleven Queens were present after all as Norene Johnson, Miss Colette H. of Detroit was forced to withdraw. Besides the winner—Ann Louise Peabody, Miss Lake Fenton and Miss Grayling, Bonnie Borchers others entered were Miss Judith Schmidt, Miss Kalkaska; Miss Mary Lou Adamowski, Miss Bay City; Miss Lou Ann Warr, Miss Houghton Lake; Miss Carol Ranney, Miss Petoskey; Miss Martha Aldrich, Miss Roscommon; Miss Ann Breidenstein, Miss Clare County; Miss Carol Sherman, Miss Harrison; Miss Jane Rindfuss, Miss Pontiac; Miss Jane Mary Yarch, Miss Rogers City.

After an afternoon of being interviewed by the judges and practicing for the evening pageant, the Queens were guests at the annual Queens Banquet held at the Grayling American Legion Hall on US-27. The five judges for the contest, who said that their task was extremely difficult one, were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Botsford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul John, all of Birminghams and Mrs. Walt Nowak of Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Botsford is the supervisor of advertising for the General Motors Corporation. Mr. John is an account executive with the Campbell-Ewald advertising agency. Mrs. Nowak is the wife of the well known radio and television outdoors commentator. Brig. General Wendell C. Philippi, introduced other dignitaries at the speakers table and visiting radio, newspaper and television representatives and then the host queen, Miss Grayling, Bonnie Borchers who introduced the group of honor men. Philippi then presented the visiting Queens who were presented a gift by Queen Bonnie. The banquet was a complete sell out without a vacant seat anywhere. The meal was served by the ladies of the Legion Auxiliary.

In addition to the competing Queens, also attending the Carnival activities were two former Miss Michigans, they were Mrs. Beverly Wyckoff Bovan, now of Ovid, formerly Miss Roscommon and winner of the Miss Michigan crown in 1952 and Mrs. Rose Bishaw Duley of Grayling who won the title of Miss Michigan in 1949. Last year's winner, Miss Ann Jackson of Clare was supposed to attend but had to cancel out at the last minute due to illness. Also eleven past Miss Graylings were on hand from the years 1933, 1936, 1940, 1942, 1944, 1947, 1948, 1951, 1952, 1956 and 1959.

The Queens gathered at midnight at the Queens Ball at the Grayling High gym was the peak attraction for Saturday's part of the Winter Sports Carnival. The program's master of ceremonies was Larry Frymire, manager of Michigan State University's radio station WKAR. He presented first the past Miss Graylings then the past Miss Michigans and the competing Queens in this year's contest appeared next. Each Queen walked the length of the gym with the competing Queens going up onto the stage. Major General Ronald D. McDonald, Adjutant General of Michigan was then presented and he still the crowd by holding up a sealed envelope which contained a number, the number of the girl selected by the judges to carry the title of Miss Michigan Winter Sports of 1960. He opened the envelope and announced the winner. Little three-year-old Bridget Hoffman, daughter of the Dr. Ralph Hoffmann then brought in the crown. She repeated the performance at Sunday's crowning also. Her mother, the former Nancy Cox is a former Miss Grayling. Gen. McDonald placed the crown on Queen Ann's head to the applause of the large crowd. Winter Sports president Lewis Stillwagon presented the new empress with a large bouquet of red roses and present with their escorts ended the program. The outstanding decorations at the gym were under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krumrei.

Sunday's part of the program got underway with the Queens breakfast at Ward's Lone Pine Inn followed by the parade from Grayling to the Winter Sports Park. A large crowd jammed the park. It was called by many observers as the largest since World War II—Brig. General Philippi (Continued on Page 8)

The program was a talk by Mrs. Violet Merrill, chair of the Women's division of the Detroit Police Department for many years. Mrs. Merrill outlined the organization and work of the force, and told of many interesting cases. The women's division is called on in cases involving women and children, and on every sex crime. The division has been very successful in getting many law protecting children passed, such as the one prohibiting girls under 18 from selling or collecting on the streets. This law resulted from the molestation and murder of a young child who was selling tickets for a church function. Mrs. Merrill's talk was most educational and provided a most educational and interesting evening.

AT STATE HEALTH CONFERENCE — Dr. Albert E. Heustis (left), state health commissioner, and Dr. Richard T. One of the subjects discussed at the meeting was mass screening tests to find vision defects. Attending the conference were local health directors from all over Michigan.

There's Nothing Mysterious About A Routine Heart Exam

There is nothing to disturb you in a routine heart examination. Actually, says the Michigan Heart Association, the procedure is entirely painless and relatively simple.

Nor is there anything mysterious about the many things your doctor does to examine your heart. The next time you visit your doctor for your regular checkup, see if this isn't so.

There are many methods, tools and tests including laboratory techniques for observing a patient's condition. The doctor uses those which are appropriate in each patient's case.

First, your doctor will talk to you. He wants to know if you have any complaints. Is there anything new in the way you feel since your previous visit? Your doctor is not making idle conversation. The information you give him is important to his estimate of your heart health status. Then he'll feel your pulse. The rhythm of the pulse reflects the rhythm of the heartbeat.

Your doctor will then take your blood pressure. The instrument he uses actually takes two pressures. This is why a blood pressure reading resembles a fraction. For example, 130/85.

The upper figure is the "systolic" pressure. This is taken at the moment your heart contracts and drives the blood in its chambers into the arteries. The lower figure is the "diastolic" pressure. It's taken at the moment your heart is relaxing between beats while its pumping chambers refill.

There's another instrument your doctor will use. This is the familiar stethoscope. Through the ear pieces he hears the sounds your heart makes when it contracts and when its valves open and close. The doctor listens for the rhythm, pitch and intensity of these and other sounds. If something is wrong with the heart, there may be differences in these sounds from the way they normally sound.

Your doctor will tap your chest with his fingers to get an idea of the size and position of your heart. This is called percussion of the chest. Sometimes the doctor may shine a bright light into your eyes with a special instrument so that he can see the blood vessels at the back of your eyes. These vessels are the only ones he can observe directly for clues to the condition of your circulatory system.

The doctor may also want to check your heart under the fluoroscope. This is a special type of x-ray machine through which he observes the heart in motion, studying its size, shape and position at the way it contracts. If he wants a permanent record of what he sees he will take an x-ray film.

If the doctor suspects heart disease may be present he may take an electrocardiogram. This is a zigzag record of tracing of the tiny electrical impulse which makes your heart beat. It does not send any electricity into your body. The test is especially useful to the doctor after a heart attack has occurred. It can often inform him where the muscle is damaged and to what extent.

If the doctor suspects heart disease he may also use laboratory tests to help complete his examination. He may want to check on the kidneys, the lungs or the blood if he suspects heart disease.

The Michigan Heart Association points out that the earlier heart ailments are diagnosed, the more effectively they can be treated. It emphasizes that almost every heart condition can now be helped by proper treatment.

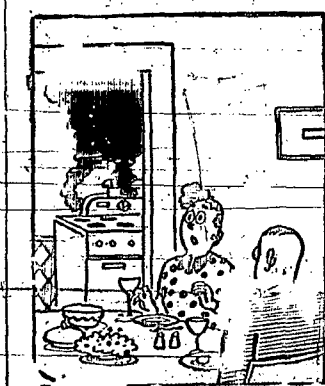

And if you want a free copy of the booklet, "How the Doctor Examines Your Heart," write to Michigan Heart Association at 3919 John R., Detroit 1.

Michigan is blessed with a fabulous supply of salt — estimated by one geologist at 71 trillion tons! We are, of course, the No. 1 producer of salt in the United States, and geologists say we have at least 29 percent of the nation's total salt deposits.

One of our salt companies digs rock salt from an underground bed. Four others recover salt by evaporation from natural and artificial brines pumped from subterranean wells.

We produce table salt and rock salt and a variety of 100 chemical salts which place us among the nation's top producers of pharmaceutical products... and the country's foremost source of aspirin.

Our only underground salt mine is 1,137 feet below the southwest corner section of Detroit. Owned and operated by the International Salt Company, its 60 miles of tunnels could hold the entire population of Detroit.

Evaporated salt for table and other uses is produced from brine wells at St. Clair, Marysville, St. Louis and Manistee. Chemical companies also produce salt and natural brine for their plant operations at Midland, Ludington, Montague, Detroit, Filer City, East Lake, Manistee, St. Ignace, St. Louis and Wyandotte.

Despite their vast production and consumption of salt, these industries have merely nibbled at the surface of what lies below. The dry-up of a great salt sea millions of years ago... later covered over by the Michigan glaciers... left a huge saucer-shaped deposit of salt below the surface of all but 11 of the 88 counties in the lower peninsula, one of the largest basins of salt deposits anywhere in the world.

In places the salt is 600 feet thick, lying a mile below the surface.

We produce well over 5,000,000 tons of salt a year... double the output of any other state... and nearly 25 percent of the national total... And except for a very few years we have produced more salt than any other state as far back as 1880.

Value of Michigan's annual salt production runs over $41 million. We are twelfth among the states in the value of all our mineral production.

In their order of production value, our chief mineral products are iron ore — cement — salt — natural salines — sand and gravel — copper — petroleum — stone — clay products — gypsum — natural gas.

We rank first in the nation in production of salt and natural salines, gypsum, peat and marl — second in iron ore, sand and gravel — and stone (chiefly limestone, dolomite and sandstone) — fourth in cement — sixth in copper — eighth in clay and shale, used in manufacture of cement and clay products — thirteenth in petroleum — fifteenth in natural gas — and seventeenth in natural gas.

We produce at least a third of the limestone used in the manufacture of American steel — 40 percent of the U. S. total of magnesium compounds — nearly one-fourth of the nation's salt — 18 percent of the gypsum.

Moreover, our state supplies one-fourth of the peat used in the United States.

We produce petroleum from some 4,500 oil wells in 46 lower peninsula counties — and we drain natural gas from 1,100 wells in 25 counties.

Main petroleum production centers are in Isabella, Montcalm, Calhoun, Jackson, Hillsdale, Arenac, Bay, Clare, Ogemaw, Osceola and Gladwin counties, accounting for 65 percent or more of the state total.

Discovery of oil late in 1958 in previously untapped fields near Albion promises a substantial rise in our petroleum production. With in a year, 65 wells — most of them at least 4,000 feet deep — were producing oil in the Albion area. The three fields follow a narrow corridor 35 miles long, stretching across Hillsdale, Calhoun and Jackson counties.

Michigan has the world's largest limestone quarry, at Rogers City, which calls itself "the limestone capital of the world" — the world's largest Portland cement plant at Alpena — and the largest gypsum quarry at Alabaster.

As one of the nation's major producers of cement, we have nine huge plants engaged in the manufacture of that product — located Alpena, Wayne, Bay, Emmet, Lenawee, St. Clair and Monroe counties.

Gypsum, another mineral in which we hold first place production rank in the nation, is quarried at Alabaster, Tawas City and National City, in Isosco county, and mined from two mines at Grand Rapids, in Kent county.

Atomic - Age Guard . . .

Next week our National Guardsmen celebrate National Guard Muster Day.

Fittingly, observance of Muster Day, an annual event, comes on the birthday of George Washington.

General Washington, a member of the Virginia Militia (the National Guard of its day) was an outstanding yet typical National Guardsman. Like his fellow Guardsmen of today, Mr. Washington was a citizen-soldier, loyal, patriotic, conscientious, who voluntarily evoted part of his time to training to defend his community and country while holding down a full-time civilian job.

The National Guard is a vital and integral part of his community as it is a first-line and vital member of an military team — Army, Air Force — on which the safety of this nation depends.

Which brings to mind what some people are saying: hat in the atomic age there is no real need for the National Guard.

We say that in the age of atomic, mass-destruction weapons there is "greater need than ever before" for a strong, effective National Guard. And today the Guard as reached the highest level of training and readiness in its 300 years of service.

Don't take our word for it. Here's what a man who would know says:

"I emphasize that in this era of terrible weaponry and of incredibly swift delivery systems and in a time when all America has moved from the rear echelons to the front lines in any future conflict, the continuance of the National Guard in instant readiness assumes of greater significance to every citizen."

The man who made that forthright, unequivocal statement is Dwight D. Eisenhower.

OW WASTEFUL CAN WE BE?

The Department of Agriculture earmarks $756 million to remove land from production.

The Commodity Credit Corporation budgets nearly $2.5 billion to remove surplus produce from the market.

The U. S. Department of Interior requests $216 million for dam building and irrigation programs to add acre land to the productive capacity of the country.

And advocates of this philosophy seem to win votes promising more of it.

The United States on February 15th assumed possession of the property located at the northeast corner of Michigan Avenue and Peninsula Avenue, by the payment of $6,000.00 to the property vendors, Nickolin and Anna Scholtz, Mrs. Marie Olson and Mrs. Anna McCullough. The purchase was consummated for the United States by Mr. Fred R. Walker, Assistant U. S. Attorney, Detroit, Michigan, and Postmaster James McDonnell. Grayling should feel fortunate in this civic enterprise because out of fifteen proposed sites and buildings allotted for Michigan in 1897 by the last session of Congress, Mr. Walker states that only the Grayling site purchase has been authorized and the purchase money paid to the owners. Postmaster McDonnell states that the property vendors have been notified to remove all buildings and obstructions from the site within thirty days to enable the government to start construction. The exterior building plans have been completed by the Treasury Department, and with the completion of the interior cabinet plans shortly, advertisement for bids for the construction will be issued to assure a very early beginning of the actual construction work on the $70,000 building.

Accuracy and speed, combined with superior ball handling, enabled Boyne City's Red and Black clad aggregation to score a 38-21 victory over the local Northern Lights Tuesday night. The Grayling reserves also met defeat at the hands of the visitors, with an 11-5 score. Jim Peterson was high point man for the locals, scoring all five points. Friday night the Green and White experienced their worst defeat of the season at the hands of Coach Kipke's Charlevoix charges by a score of 40-11.

Dr. J. F. Cook is moving his dental office into offices that have been prepared for his use in the Dr. Stealy building, formerly the Bank of Grayling building. He says he expects to be settled and ready for practice there tomorrow.

A special meeting of the City Council to which local business men and others were invited, was held at the Courthouse Friday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to take up the matter of bonding the city for $22,500 to aid in the construction of a sewage treatment plant. An estimated cost amounts to $30,000 and $7,200 of this amount is an outright grant from the Federal Government. An ordinance authorizing the construction and operation of the plant and for the issuance of self-liquidating bonds is now in effect. Those present at the meeting were unanimous in favoring the construction of the sewage treatment plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Bidvia are enjoying a ten-day visit from Misses Edyth Shurtum and Clair Hellam of Rogers City. Miss Shurtum is a guest of Art or May.

The Women's South Side club met at the home of Mrs. Middle LaMotte last week. "Bunco" was played with Mrs. Otto Cox, Mrs. William LaMotte, Mrs. Edna Evans and Mrs. Lawrence Balch holding high scores. A nice lunch was served by the ladies on the committee.

Mrs. Albert Charron was guest of honor at a seeing-places party planned by neighboring ladies. Games were in play through the afternoon, with high scores being held by Mrs. Charron, Mrs. Carl Larson and Albert Charron, Jr. Potluck lunch was served and Mrs. Charron was presented with a lovely gift.

To celebrate the 11th birthday anniversary of her daughter Edwina, Mrs. Wilbert Simpson entertained 15 little friends at her home Monday. Games were enjoyed and Natalie Johnson and Barbara Simpson were contest winners. Lunch was served at a table nicely decorated in Valentine style with a huge birthday cake, also decorated in holiday colors. Edwina received many lovely gifts.

A ladies trio, composed of Mrs. June Underwood, Miss Helen Babbitt, and Miss Christina Cobb, has been formed recently. They will be known as the Happy Trio and will specialize in the singing of gospel songs of the old-fashioned variety. Each of these ladies has a voice much above the ordinary, and those who have heard them once will certainly wish to hear them again. Sunday they will sing a number or two at the Free Methodist church at the morning service, which will be at 11 o'clock. All are invited to hear them, at that time.

Local Share Of National Debt $3,250,000

(Special to the Avalanche)

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 — What price national debt? How much is it costing residents of Crawford County in taxes each year to pay their portion of the interest charge assisted by Elmer Rasmussen and Ed Cooper.

A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Stephan Karpus Tuesday.

Mrs. Esbern Hanson entertained the bridge club Saturday afternoon. It was the first meeting of the club and the following officers were elected: Pres. Mrs. Thorwald Hanson; vice-pres. Mrs. Olaf Michelson; sec.-treas. Mrs. George Alexander.

Deputy State Game Warden Bobbit is in Lansing this week attending a consultancy meeting of game wardens.

Twin calves were born at the Julius Nelson dairy Saturday. Although fully developed, both died the same day.

Miss Catherine McPeak left Saturday for Detroit where she is position in a wholesale millinery establishment.

Mrs. J. E. Crowley and Miss Nellie Shanahan expect to leave Monday for Detroit and Toledo to purchase summer millinery goods.

Miss Agnes Hanson came to town from Pleasant Saturday afternoon to attend the Danish masquerade.

Miss Ethel Tromble left Saturday afternoon for Detroit for a few days visit with friends.

Mrs. E. Joseph underwent an operation at Dr. Darling's hospital in Ann Arbor Tuesday. Miss Martha who accompanied her remained through the operation.

Mrs. Roy Newton of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Rasmussen. She was formerly Miss Agnes Rasmussen, up to a month ago when she was united in marriage to Mr. Newton of Toledo.

ges alone on the debt?

From calculations made by the Tax Foundation, which keeps an eye on taxes and spending at all levels of government, the current interest charges average $51.48 per person for the entire population of the country.

It is nearly $1 a week, every week in the year, for every inhabitant.

For Crawford County residents, applying the average interest costs locally, it adds up to $257,000 a year.

The rate will go up in the next fiscal year to a new high of $53.71 per person. This was indicated recently by President Eisenhower when he told Congress that the interest charges on the national debt, which were $8.1 billion a year ago, are now approaching $9.5 billion.

This rise of $1.4 billion, translated into more understandable terms, amounts to an increase in interest costs of $7.81 a year per person.

The Tax Foundation notes that, next to Defense Department expenditures, payments for interest on the debt will be the biggest costs to be met in the next fiscal year. They will exceed by far the outlays for veterans and for agriculture.

At the present time, the national debt stands at $291 billion, which is nearly $1,650 for every man, woman and child in the country.

If the residents of Crawford were to pay off their share of this obligation they would need the tidy sum of $8,250,000.

A glimmer of hope is seen in the President's commanding a possible $4.2 billion surplus in fiscal 1961. If it is achieved, he said, it should be applied to reducing the debt.

A quick calculation shows that a reduction of this size would cut Crawford County's portion of the debt by $124,000. Local interest at all costs would drop proportionately. Some idea of how huge an amount is the $291 billion that represents the national debt comes from the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. It points out that it is equal to the combined savings of the American people in the form of savings accounts, life insurance and Government bonds.

LOOK AT THE LOWER PRICES

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. This two-tone Bel Air V8 sedan, for example, with Turboglide, push-button radio and de-luxe heater—lists for a whole $76.05 less! Prices are lower for all comparable V8 models throughout the line. Also for all comparable 6-cylinder models with Powerglide. Yet Chevy's loaded with more of the things that put pleasure into owning a car. (Just look at the list!) It's the greatest year yet to get into a Chevy!

Softer, more silent ride with coil springs at all four wheels and new butyl-rubber-cushioned body mounts.

Big brakes for quicker, surer stops. Rivetless bonded linings mean they last longer, too.

More room to relax in: Chevy sedans offer roomier seating than any car in their class. Lower, narrower transmission-tunnel means more foot room.

Only full wraparound windshield among the leading low-priced cars.

Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass. Vent windows crank open and closed. So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 10% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power options. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 335 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Still's lower for easier loading.

Floor body craftsmanship. Look at the finish, the fabrics, the detail work: You'll see the difference.

Drive it—It's fun-tasteful! See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for fast delivery, favorable deals.

Head The Avalanche

WEEK MORNING
ALL JANUARY 30th

Miss Karen Sue Lodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lodge of Frederic, and Mr. Wayne Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morgan of Saginaw, former Grayling residents, were united in marriage on January 30, 1950, at 9 o'clock in the evening at the Michelson Memorial church in Grayling. The Rev. R. C. Puffer performed the ceremony before approximately one hundred fifty guests. Mrs. Arthur Feldhauser played the organ and song, "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of Chantilly lace over white with a sweeping chapel-train-of-white satin. Her shoulder-length veil was of nylon net. She wore a necklace of white pearls and carried a white Bible tied with a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Miss Barbara Rouse attended the bride. Her costume was a gown of turquoise velvet. With it she wore a matching hat, elbow length gloves, and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Leon D'Amour of Grayling served the groom as best man. Ushers were Charles Lodge, brother of the bride, and John Morgan, brother of the groom. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lodge wore a green wool crepe with black accessories. Mrs. Morgan, mother of the groom, chose a floral silk dress with black accessories. Both mothers, and Karen's grandmother, Mrs. C. S. Barker, wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception for two hundred guests was held at the Fredrick Town Hall following the ceremony. Many beautiful gifts were received.

The new Mrs. Morgan wore an apricot colored suit with white black accessories for the honeymoon trip. The couple is at home at 1932 Kalkaska, Saginaw, Michigan.

The bride attended Fredrick High school and the groom Grayling High school. Friends and relatives from Saginaw, Detroit, Roscommon, Grayling, Maple Forest and Frederic attended the wedding and reception.

On February 7th, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morgan held an open house in Saginaw for forty friends and relatives.

Here to attend the wedding of Sharon Lodge Saturday were Mrs. and Mr. Victor of Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Vance of Grayling, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morgan of Saginaw, also friends from Grayling. The bride and groom were at the Town Hall Saturday evening and she received many nice gifts.

There should be a correction made on the item in last week's paper. It was to be Miss Janet Campbell of Grayling, not Mrs. John Campbell - and Mr. Charles Lodge - not Mrs. Charles Lodge. The bride and groom were at the Town Hall Saturday evening and she received many nice gifts.

The Hobby Club is sponsoring a benefit dance at the Fredrick School gym on February 20th, 8-11 p.m., proceeds to go to the school library fund. Round and square dancing, refreshments. Students 35c, adults 50c. Oscar and Anna Charron accompanied by Kate Harner and Lillian Charron of Frederic, enjoyed a visit to the Sarasota Jungle Gardens during their recent vacation on the Sun Coast of Florida. The visitors mingled with flamingos and other exotic wildfowl roaming freely amid Florida's finest scenery. Other parties of interest in Jungle Gardens were the Forest Palms, bordering jungle trails, hundreds of colorful tropical plants, and brilliant macaws which pose with visitors for pictures.

The Fredrick PTA is sponsoring a regular meeting at the Fredrick school on February 24th, with 45 members present. Entertainment was furnished by the Fifth and Sixth grades. Janice Johnson read a report on the life of Lincoln, and Mrs. Kornke one on the life of George Washington.

Willard Cornell was present to give facts on accident insurance for school children. The cost is low and will be of interest to parents. More about this at our next meeting.

Plans were laid for the annual supper in March. The luncheon was furnished by the refreshment committee.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank Dr. Henry Dr. Blaha and Dr. Dosch, the Hospital staff and the Sisters for my good care at the Hospital. Also thanks to all who sent cards, gifts, and flowers, the S.D.A. church ladies, and all church groups for special prayers. My special thanks to Mrs. Robert Strong in all her kindness. These kindnesses will never be forgotten.

Food, Cars Get 69% Off Dollar Locally

(Special to the Avalanche)

New York, Feb. 8.—Where does the money go? How does the Crawford County family spend its income and for what?

Latest facts and figures, covering fiscal 1959, show that local residents are devoting 69 percent of their available cash, after settling with the tax collector, for purchases of food and for private transportation. The latter includes purchases of automobiles, motorcycles and boats, together with maintenance, fuel and oil.

The findings are contained in the annual survey of the Standard Rate and Data Service, covering all parts of the country. Detailed for each area is its spending pattern during the twelve months ending July 1, 1959.

In Crawford County, the survey shows, the amount spent for food and transportation came to $4,454,000 in the year.

Of this, $1,388,000 went to local stores selling food for home use. Restaurant sales are not included. Purchases of automotive equipment and accessories, represented another $1,695,000.

Gas filling stations took the remaining $1,393,000.

Combined, they represented 69 percent of the year's total retail volume, which came to $6,398,000. A gain over the $5,927,000 of the previous year.

Such strong consumer spending, so soon after emerging from a depression, is attributed to firm confidence on the part of the general public of good times ahead.

In general, they reasoned, jobs have been steady and wages moving upward, despite some temporary setbacks. Conditions were about right, therefore, to get some of those big-ticket items that they had been putting off buying, even though it meant an increase in their installment debt. Besides, prices would be higher later on, so the thing to do was to buy now.

As a result, the SRS figures show, retail stores in Crawford County had sales that amounted to $4,208 per local household.

This topped the average in the United States as a whole of $4,047 per household. In the East North Central States it was $4,168.

Of the $6,398,000 in total retail business locally, the principal part, that which garnered by food and automotive stores, went for general merchandise, $177,000, apparel, $241,000, home furnishings, $98,000, and drugs, $224,000.

IN THE FORE IN PEACE AND WAR

The National Guard tradition of service to country and community is an unbroken line which links the militia age of today with the era of the Minuteman.

Although the heroic figure of the Minuteman and the "Spirit of '76" have come to symbolize the 18th Century concept of the citizen-soldier, the fact is that the National Guard tradition is even more deeply-rooted in the American past.

The colonists' philosophy was that an able-bodied man would "join the avocation of a soldier to whatever business or trade happened to be his livelihood. This was the philosophy which led to the reliance that was to be placed in the militia over the years. An American phenomenon, it defied the European tradition that arms were to be borne only by "professionals" led by noblemen.

Nevertheless, colonial militia forces fought shoulder to shoulder with the British in the French and Indian Wars. They helped win the siege of Louisbourg with skill which startled the professionals. British noblemen were inclined to look down their noses at "a regiment of New England farmers and fishermen — led by a lumber merchant." Britain's professionals and noblemen would meet these provincials again.

It began, the history books tell us, at Lexington, Massachusetts. This is where the tradition of the Minuteman got its impetus.

What is now known as the "National Guard" was first the Organized Militia. The term National Guard was first used when the militia in 1824, when the 2nd Battalion, 11th New York Artillery (later, the famous 7th Regiment) was selected to serve as guard of honor for the visiting Marquis de Lafayette. Lafayette's visit was promptly re-named their outfit the "National Guard" in deference to his "Garde Nationale."

Of great importance to the military structure of the U. S. was the passage of first the Dick Act of 1903 which set the stage for modernizing the Guard along the same lines as the Regular Army. The National Defense Act of 1916 officially bestowed the title "National Guard" upon the elements of the old Organized Militia, ordered the organization of the Guard to conform to that of the Army itself. This established the Guard finally as a part of the Nation's organized peacetime establishment as well as an integral part of the Army of the United States when in active service.

In World War I, 150,000 Guardsmen were mobilized for duty along the Mexican Border. In World War II the National Guard furnished 17 divisions. Eleven of them were sent overseas for General Pershing in the AEF. Of eight U. S. divisions engaged communist forces in China and a "partial mobilization" of our forces took place. During 1950-53, 183,000 members of the National Guard saw active service. Eight infantry divisions, 22 air wings, and hundreds of other units of both the Army and the Air National Guard were ordered to duty. Two divisions were hurried to bolster our forces in Europe; two divisions and two air wings were rushed to Korea.

Battle-tested and time-tested, the National Guard up-to-the-minute Men are ready today just as they have always been ready, willing and able in over 300 years of service to country and community.

File For That Homestead Tax Exemption Now

Every veteran, serviceman or unmarried widow, who is eligible for the Michigan State homestead tax exemption, should file immediately for this year's benefits.

The deadline for filing is the last day of the Board of Review meets in the respective communities and is usually sometime in March in most counties, but it is earlier in some areas.

Contact your local tax assessor's office or county supervisor's office for specific details.

As you know, the tax exemption is on the first $2,000 of the assessed valuation of the veteran's or widow's homestead, providing the total assessed valuation of the property owned by the applicant does not exceed $7,500. The applicant must be living in the home or using the homestead as a home.

Only veterans with wartime service are entitled to tax exemption, as well as unmarried widows of veterans with wartime service.

Remember you must file before the deadline and you must file every year. Even if you are eligible you will have to pay the tax this year if you do not file before the deadline.

Winter Carnival

then officially crowned Queen Ann Louise as Miss Michigan Winter Sports of 1960.
Ski races, acrobatic skiing and exhibitions by beginners, intermediate and professional skiers were conducted before the queen-crowning.
Both Saturday and Sunday, ski and toboggan enthusiasts filled the park taking advantage of the beautiful winter sports weather. Chairman Post speaking of the weekend said that he wished to thank each and every person who helped to make the 55th Annual Carnival such a success. He wouldn't attempt to name them all but he did add that the assistance that he received from each and everyone was a needed part of the full community effort. The parade went off without a hitch, the baffle was sold out, the dance floor was filled all evening and the park needed two more large parking areas plowed out to accommodate the crowd Sunday besides the eight large ones already available and then cars were parked along the roads out to the highway. In addition, the chairman pointed out, life then added, even the weather cooperated.

Winners of the merchandise certificates at the park on Sunday were: William Schreiber, $100; Clement Blaine, $75; George Hanson, $50; Carla Jean Mosier, $25.
The new Queen is a vivacious blue-eyed, brown-haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peabody, Lake Fenton fruit farmers and is taking a college preparatory course at Manneville High School in Flint. She plans to major in agricultural economics at Michigan State University and hopes to become a vocational agriculture teacher. The new Queen was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cason while in Grayling as her mother and Mrs. Cason are old friends.
She remained over on Monday in order to take care of her prize which was $200 in script which was good at various Grayling stores. All of the visiting dignitaries stated that they had had a most enjoyable stay in Grayling and the new Queen remarked that it was her first visit to Grayling but it certainly would not be her last.
So another Grayling Winter Carnival is history... it will be remembered by many folks for many of its facets but by all for the wonderful break in the weather.
